1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with B. Craig Killogh on July 25, 2005. The application has been amended as follows:

The dependency of claim 20 has been changed from "16" to --18--.

In claim 25, line 2, after "further", --comprising-- has been added.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art a) is directed to donor elements while the present invention is directed to transferable receiving elements and b) fails to teach or suggest applying the reactive components in different layers (i.e., the reactive components are applied only in mixture in a single coating) .

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
